

Alexander Michael Hoffman

March 24, 1995 - November 3, 2012

Age 17, of Cabery, IL passed away suddenly, Saturday, November 3, 2012 at his home. Born March 24, 1995 in Hinsdale, IL. Alex was a senior at Tri-Point High School in Cullom, IL. He played on the JV football team for the Iroquois West Raiders for two years. He was currently employed by the Cabery Bar & Grill in Cabery. He attended the Herscher Christian Church in Herscher, IL and Congregation Beth Shalom in Naperville, IL. Alex was aspiring to attend the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign to study family law. He enjoyed working on cars and trucks with his father, Tom. He was a wonderful musician, loved his X-Box, and he was an avid reader of non-fiction books. He enjoyed sports and loved the Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs. Surviving are his father and step-mother, Thomas and Becky Hoffman of Cabery; mother and step-father, Selena (nee Golinkin) and Steve Rochlis of Naperville, IL; maternal grandparents, Herbert and Adrienne Golinkin of Naperville; paternal grandmother, Judith Hoffman of Naperville; aunts and uncles, Holly Hoffman of Lombard, IL, Greg (Sandy) Hoffman of Oswego, IL, and Norman (Rachel) Golinkin of Buffalo Grove, IL, and Susan Rochlis of Ingleside, IL; cousins, Samantha and Allison Hoffman of Oswego, and Austin and Emma Golinkin of Buffalo Grove; and many more aunts, uncles, cousins, and special friends. Preceding him in death was his sister, Jennifer Kathleen Sutton. Funeral services will be at the R.W. Patterson Funeral Homes, Ltd., Braidwood Chapel, Thursday, November 8, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Tyson Graber and Rabbi Marc Rudolph officiating. Interment Evergreen Cemetery, Morris, IL. Visitation will be Wednesday, November 7 from 4-8 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to the charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated.

Events

---

NOV Visitation 04:00PM - 08:00PM

7

---

R.W. Patterson Funeral Home
401 East Main St., Braidwood, IL, US, 60408

NOV Service 11:00AM - 11:30AM

8

---

R.W. Patterson Funeral Home
401 East Main St., Braidwood, IL, US, 60408

Comments

---

“ Happy 18th Birthday to my beautiful son. You have grown to be a kind, caring, loving young man. I love you so very much and miss you every day.

Always and Forever ~

Mom

Selena Rochlis - March 22, 2013 at 09:40 AM

---

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Alex's family. I had the pleasure of getting to know Alex when Jennie was in St. Louis. My granddaughter Ashlee and I spent many months waiting with Selena and Jennie for double lung transplants for our angels. When Alex was visiting, Jennie would be so happy to see her baby brother! A very tall baby brother! All my love to you, Selena and Steve and not to forget the best grandparents in the world, Adrienne and Herbert. May God bless you and give you peace. Selena, our girls are looking after Alex. Love and sympathy from Mormor in Tulsa OK

Liv H. Poland - December 05, 2012 at 08:33 PM

---

“ Holly Hoffman lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Holly Hoffman - November 22, 2012 at 10:58 AM

---

“ 1 file added to the album Alexander Michael Hoffman

Sara Foote - November 20, 2012 at 11:17 AM

“ What a beautiful video. Very Well put together

Dana Phipps-Arnett - November 27, 2012 at 09:14 AM

“ My dearest Alex -

My beautiful son. I already miss you so very much. Your smile, your quick wit, the glint in your eye when you were pulling my leg, your love of reading and learning, the back of your head when you were engrossed in your computer games. I miss your 'being tall' for me when I can't reach the top shelf. I miss our conversations: 'How are you?' 'Fine.' 'How was school?' 'OK.' 'Any homework tonight?' 'No.' or 'Already done.' 'What are your plans this weekend?' 'I don't know. Work.' 'Are you going to work on your truck?' 'Maybe, I don't know.' 'Have a good day tomorrow.' 'OK.' 'I love you!' 'OK.'

We had no doubt you would be an excellent litigator from the time you were two or three years old. You could present a eloquent argument pleading your case, be it for an extra cookie, going to the park, staying up a little later or staying in St. Louis an extra day with your sister after her transplant just so you could stand guard in her room, making sure everyone followed the visiting rules: mask, gloves, gown, no more than two people at a time, no more than five minutes each. You would announce at the four-minute mark, 'You have one minute left,' to each visitor.

I was knitting an afghan for Nana. It was early 2002. One day, you, my six year old son, asked me when I would make one for you. I asked you what color you wanted it to be. 'Green.' 'What color green?' 'GREEN green!' We went to the yarn shop, you picked out the exact color you wanted and we ordered it, as there was not enough in stock. A few weeks later, I was still working on Nana's afghan. 'Mommy, when are you going to start MY blanket?' 'Well, Alex, the yarn had to come from Turkey, a war started, and the yarn has to come past the war to get here.' You thought very seriously for a minute, looked me straight in the eye and said, 'Stupid war.' Once the yarn came in, I started knitting. And knitting. And knitting. In the pattern you picked out. You remember, the complicated one. Then one day, 9 1/2 skeins into the 10 we had ordered, you came to me and said, 'Mommy, I don't LIKE green anymore.' I paused, took a deep breath, 'OK, Alex. What color DO you like?' 'Blue.' 'What color blue?' 'BLUE blue!' So back to the yarn store we went to find the right blue blue. Ten skeins later, I attached a WIDE blue blue border to a green green center. It was months before you allowed the afghan in your room. First, it had to stay across the hall from yours in Jennie's room, where you could see it, but the green green didn't touch you. Then it could sit in the hallway. Then, finally, you would allow it on your bed, but ONLY as the bottom blanket of ten afghans, the other nine from Bubbie's house, with only the blue blue border showing.

I am so glad my last words to you were 'I love you.' I hope you know how much you are loved by so many people: family, friends, classmates, teachers, teammates. You have left a huge, six foot, three inch, 180 pound hole where you should be.

Parents, call your children. TELL them that you love them. They know you do, but do it anyway. They need to hear the words. Kids, call your parents. They need to hear the words, too.

I LOVE YOU ALEX, AND I ALWAYS WILL.

Forever,
Mom

Selena Rochlis - November 17, 2012 at 10:53 AM

“ Thank you Selena with your help with my son. Angie Reid

Angie Reid - December 06, 2012 at 12:42 PM

“ My dearest Alex -

My beautiful son. I already miss you so very much. Your smile, your quick wit, the glint in your eye when you were pulling my leg, the back of your head when you were engrossed in your computer games. I miss your 'being tall' for me when I can't reach the top shelf. I miss our conversations: 'How are you?' 'Fine.' 'How was school?' 'OK.' 'Any homework tonight?' 'No.' or 'Already done.' 'What are your plans this weekend?' 'I don't know. Work.' 'Are you going to work on your truck?' 'Maybe, I don't know.' 'Have a good day tomorrow.' 'OK.' 'I love you!' 'OK.'

We had no doubt you would be an excellent litigator from the time you were two or three years old. You could present a eloquent argument pleading your case, be it for an extra cookie, going to the park, staying up a little later or staying in St. Louis an extra day with your sister after her transplant just so you could stand guard in her room, making sure everyone followed the visiting rules: mask, gloves, gown, no more than two people at a time, no more than five minutes each. You would announce at the four-minute mark, 'You have one minute left,' to each visitor.

I was knitting an afghan for Nana. It was early 2002. One day, you, my six year old son, asked me when I would make one for you. I asked you what color you wanted it to be. 'Green.' 'What color green?' 'GREEN green!' We went to the yarn shop, you picked out the exact color you wanted and we ordered it, as there was not enough in stock. A few weeks later, I was still working on Nana's afghan. 'Mommy, when are you going to start MY blanket?' 'Well, Alex, the yarn had to come from Turkey, a war started, and the yarn has to come past the war to get here.' You thought very seriously for a minute, looked me straight in the eye and said, 'Stupid war.' Once the yarn came in, I started knitting. And knitting. And knitting. In the pattern you picked out. You remember, the complicated one. Then one day, 9 1/2 skeins into the 10 we had ordered, you came to me and said, 'Mommy, I don't LIKE green anymore.' I paused, took a deep breath, 'OK, Alex. What color DO you like?' 'Blue.' 'What color blue?' 'BLUE blue!' So back to the yarn store we went to find the right blue blue. Ten skeins later, I attached a WIDE blue blue border to a green green center. It was months before you allowed the afghan in your room. First, it had to stay across the hall in Jennie's room across from yours, where you could see it, but the green green didn't touch you. Then it could sit in the hallway. Then, finally, you would allow it on your bed, but ONLY as the bottom blanket of ten afghans, the other nine from Bubbie's house, with only the blue blue border showing.

I am so glad my last words to you were 'I love you.' I hope you know how much you are loved by so many people: family, friends, classmates, teachers, teammates. You have left a huge, six foot, three inch, 180 pound hole where you should be.

Parents, call your children. TELL them that you love them. They know you do, but do it anyway. They need to hear the words. Kids, call your parents. They need to hear the words, too.

I LOVE YOU ALEX, AND I ALWAYS WILL.

Forever,
Mom

Selena Rochlis - November 17, 2012 at 10:30 AM

---

“ Mom And Steve sent a virtual gift in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Mom and Steve - November 15, 2012 at 12:25 AM

---

“ After a week to reflect on my memories of Alex, I am able to honestly testify that he will forever remain a positive and key memory for me of the good things about Tri-Point High School.

I never had to repeat myself with Alex. Although I never had the chance for a lengthy or deep philosophical conversation, every interaction had a level of maturity that I will always appreciate. It is the nature of adolescents to be exasperating at times, but that was not the case with him.

Alex's positive responses will make me forever hopeful regarding my attempts to assist other young students to grow appropriately. While he will be missed, Alex has made my heart a little fuller because of that hope.

Thank you Alex, for those positive memories.

Bill Geasa, Principal

William R. Geasa - November 14, 2012 at 06:55 PM

---

“ Dana Phipps-Arnett lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Dana Phipps-Arnett - November 12, 2012 at 11:15 AM

---

“ Love Mom sent a virtual gift in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

love mom - November 12, 2012 at 07:12 AM

---

“ Dad And Mom lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Dad and Mom - November 12, 2012 at 07:10 AM

“ should read Dad and Mom

Mom - November 12, 2012 at 07:13 AM

---

“ Aunt Debbie & Uncle Ray lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

aunt debbie & uncle ray - November 11, 2012 at 09:25 PM

---

“ Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy - November 11, 2012 at 01:07 PM

“ This should read Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy, Samantha & Allison

Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy - November 11, 2012 at 01:08 PM

---

“ Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy & Girls lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Uncle Greg, Aunt Sandy & girls - November 11, 2012 at 01:06 PM

---

“ We were so sorry to read about Alexander's death in the paper. We were at Cabery Bar and Grill on his first night of work, and he was such a sweet, conscientious person, with a beautiful smile. We were really impressed with him, and know he will be sorely missed. God Bless you and your family.

Alice and Tom McVey
Betty and Lowell Mobbs
Betty and Gary Corbett
Jean and Richard Baron

Please see Tribute for names. - November 09, 2012 at 12:20 PM

---

“ Our deepest sympathy to all the family from your neighbor's. So sorry to hear about your terrible loss.

May God's love and Grace shine upon you.
Condolences,
Neville, Nan, Chris and Lauren Diamond.

Neville Diamond - November 08, 2012 at 04:40 PM

---

“ Bonnie Holle lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Bonnie Holle - November 08, 2012 at 03:20 PM

---

“ Tyson Graber lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Tyson Graber - November 07, 2012 at 10:28 PM

“ I am praying for God's peace and mercy to fall on the entire family.

Tyson Graber - November 07, 2012 at 10:29 PM

---

“ I didn't know Alexander. However, I knew his dad and his aunt Holly. I can't even imagine how they, his mom, and other family members and friends must be feeling during this sad and tragic time. Thoughts and prayers from our family to theirs.

Dean Drackley - November 07, 2012 at 06:26 PM

---

“ Tom,Becky, and the rest of the family, Our hearts and prayers are with all of you. We are so sorry for your loss.

Tom Tunks Karen and Paul Christopher - November 07, 2012 at 05:22 PM

---

“ The Stephenson's lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

“ Michelle Giacometti lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Michelle Giacometti - November 07, 2012 at 03:21 PM

---

“ DOLORES MORALES lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

DOLORES MORALES - November 07, 2012 at 02:32 PM

---

“ Dear Selene, Steve, Mr. & Mrs. Golinkin & family, I am so sorry to hear about Alex. He had a beautiful smile and I can see from the other comments he was a good friend, student and mentor to underclassman. I had not seen him since Jenny's funeral but can see he over came some of his struggles and turned into this amazing young man. My heart and prayers are with you at this time of need. He is at peace and I see Jenny scolding him with that finger shaking at him. I believe they are together.
My love to you all.

Charlene Kehoe - November 07, 2012 at 01:23 PM

---

“ Laura Hunt lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Laura Hunt - November 07, 2012 at 12:11 PM

---

“ When tomorrow starts without me and I 'm not hear to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
the way you did today
while thinking of the many things
we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me
as much as I love you and each time you think of me
I know you 'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me
don't think we 're far apart for every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart.

We love you and we will miss you. Uncle Ray and Aunt Debbie

Debbie Jepsen - November 07, 2012 at 12:01 PM

---

“ Peggy And David Clark lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Peggy and David Clark - November 07, 2012 at 11:00 AM

“ Our condolences for your sorrow upon losing Alex. Peace be to all.

Peggy Clark - November 07, 2012 at 05:02 PM

---

“ Dana Phipps-Arnett lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Dana Phipps-Arnett - November 07, 2012 at 10:17 AM

---

“ My heart go out to Alex's friends and family who are suffering today. I am a teacher here at Tri-Point. I will never forget Alex's smile. He had a smile that would light up the whole room. I would be helping other students in some of the classrooms that he was in and would be able to talk to him and see how bright he was. He would always be joking and brighting peoples day. He was a very special person and I enjoyed all the times we would bond over some topic in school. My thoughts and prayers go out to his parents and family. My hope is that you will have comfort this day and the following days to come. We will miss his smiling face and I know that he is lighting up the heavens with his beautiful sprirt. Alex touch many lives and I am so honored to be one of those lives.

Dana Phipps-Arnett Special Education Teacher Tri-Point High School

Dana Phipps-Arnett - November 07, 2012 at 10:16 AM

---

“ sent a virtual gift in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

November 07, 2012 at 10:15 AM

---

“ I will never forget Alex's contagious and energetic smile. My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Alex Hoffman.

The Pearson's from Durham, NC - Friends of Selena and Steve Rochliss and Herbert and Adrienne Golinkin.

Annette Pearson - November 07, 2012 at 08:43 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Alex's extended families. Friends of Steve and Selena Rochliss. Greg & Loretta Reasor

Greg Reasor - November 07, 2012 at 10:11 AM

“ Anttionette Elmhurst lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

anntionette elmhurst - November 07, 2012 at 08:33 AM

“ Melissa And John Edwards lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Melissa and John Edwards - November 07, 2012 at 07:25 AM

“ Katelyn Feldkamp lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Katelyn Feldkamp - November 07, 2012 at 06:49 AM

---

“ This message is for our beautiful son Alexander Michael Hoffman, We will miss your laugh, your unselfish ways, the special way you always made people feel important to you, without expecting anything in return, your sense of humor and most of all Alex, the most beautiful smile God ever gave to someone. We can still here your priceless voice say "hi" said the way that dad and i would only know truly how happy you were at that moment. nobody else heard it like we did. Please let all your pain, suffering and sorrow be gone and know now that you can rest in the arms of the Lord. Always know that we will forever remain "THE ANGEL BY YOUR SIDE" and that you wont want for anything. With a very heavy heart Alex, we say We love you forever and always, rest in peace buddy.

Love forever,

Dad and Mom (Becky) Hoffman

Tom and Becky Hoffman - November 07, 2012 at 05:57 AM

---

“ To start off with, my heart goes out to Tom and Becky and the rest of Alex's family. I knew Alex through football. I was his football coach. Alex was not always the most gifted athlete but was an important part to the team. The coaching staff and I would often talk about Alex's determination. Alex loved football. During practice Alex was often on the scout team which I coached. Every day he took on players bigger and more experienced than him. Alex would never give up. He'd often get knocked down but would always get up and be ready for the next play. As the scout team coach you appreciate those types of players. They are the foundation of your team and where your teams character starts. I was truly blessed I was given the opportunity to coach Alex Hoffman. I have many fond memories of him for the two years I coached him at Iroquois West, scout team practices, Monicals pizza (Matt knows what I'm talking about), and the long bus rides home. I found this news to be a huge shock. Alex touched many people in his life and I am grateful to have been one of them.

Coach Edwards

“ Alex was in my study hall at Tri-Point, im a freshman this year and he always gave me confidence about myself. Alex always had a smile on his face and he would always cheer me up when i was down. Alex and i would always mess with Ms. Webb during study hall telling her that she needed to let us and listen to music and let us have Kool-Aid (after she took it away from the class). At the begining of school when i was intimated of going to high school Alex was the only upperclassmen, there for a while i really talked to and also the only one i was comfortable to talk with. I think Alex and I were building a friendship and would have gotten closer as the year went on. Im going to miss Alex and study hall will not be the same. Im going to miss you buddy.

Ben Mogged - November 06, 2012 at 09:19 PM

---

“ In loving memory of our beautiful son Alexander Michael Hoffman. I leave this tribute to the most unselfish, loving, caring and most respectful son a person could ever have. We will always and forever miss your wonderful sense of humor, the respect that you gave to everybody you came in contact with, the love and care you gave to make everyone feel special in your life and I say this next with a very heavy heart to the most beautiful smile God ever gave to anyone. May all your pain, sorrow and suffering be gone and know that you can seek comfort in the hands of the Lord. Know that we will always be "THE ANGEL BY YOUR SIDE" REST IN PEACE BUDDY

With all our love,
Dad and Mom (Becky) Hoffman

Tom and Becky Hoffman - November 06, 2012 at 09:07 PM

---

“ Ben Mogged lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Ben Mogged - November 06, 2012 at 09:01 PM

---

“ I LEAVE THIS TRIBUTE IN HONOR OF OUR BEAUTIFUL SON ALEXANDER MICHAEL HOFFMAN, OUR WORDS CANNOT EXPRESS ALL THE JOY AND HAPPINESS YOU HAVE GIVEN TO US IN YOUR SHORT TIME HERE ON EARTH.YOUR BEAUTIFUL SMILE, YOUR KIND WORDS TO ALL YOU TALKED TO OR SPOKE ABOUT, YOUR AWESOME SENSE OF HUMOR AND MOST OF ALL THE ABUNDANCE OF UNCONDITIONAL LOVE YOU GAVE TO US. MAY ALL YOUR PAIN, SORROW AND HEAVY HEART BE GONE AND KNOW THAT YOU CAN SEEK COMFORT NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE LORD, AND KNOW THAT WE WILL ALWAYS BE "THE ANGEL BY YOUR SIDE". FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS.

WE LOVE YOU ALEX AND KNOW THAT YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN

LOVE DAD AND MOM (becky) HOFFMAN

thomas michael hoffman father - November 06, 2012 at 08:44 PM

---

“ Emily Margewich lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Emily Margewich - November 06, 2012 at 07:35 PM

---

“ Alex you are loved by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing you an will be missed by everyone. May you rest in peice in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ.I pray for your family an friends that they can find some comfort in the days to follow.

barbara krueger - November 06, 2012 at 07:30 PM

---

“ Blake Reid And Family lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Blake Reid and family - November 06, 2012 at 07:25 PM

---

“ Ron And Lori Hoegger lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Ron and Lori Hoegger - November 06, 2012 at 05:59 PM

---

“ Lisa Harting lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Lisa Harting - November 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM

---

“ Dawn Johnson lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Dawn Johnson - November 06, 2012 at 05:03 PM

“ Betty Thygesen lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Betty Thygesen - November 06, 2012 at 03:32 PM

---

“ Jeff Shapiro sent a virtual gift in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Jeff Shapiro - November 06, 2012 at 02:55 PM

---

“ Anne Carney lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Anne Carney - November 06, 2012 at 10:54 AM

---

“ I didn't know Alex very long, I worked with him for a short time at the Cabery bar. Alex was such an awesome guy. We loved talking about bands and music. We had music in common. I told him I used to be a guitar player many years ago when I first got to know him and he loved talking about music. We always had music on when we worked together and he would laugh at me when I sang while I cooked. He once told me "it's just wrong to hear a chick sing Van Halen" and we both laughed so hard over that. I am so sorry to hear of his passing, such a wonderful guy that had so much going. Though I only knew him a short time, I will miss him. My heart goes out to all of his family and I am keeping Alex and everyone in my prayers. Rest in Peace buddy.....I dedicate Tears in Heaven to you today by Eric Clapton.

Pam Tharge - November 06, 2012 at 10:45 AM

---

“ I'd like to start off by saying I'm very sad to hear about this tragedy. Alex had a bright future ahead of him. He was a very smart kid. I have many great memories with alex. I had a few classes with him last year and I'm very glad he was in my Accounting class, because we helped eachother out a lot (more so him helping me). My greatest memories with Alex though was in football. Football is a sport that creates a bond between individuals that will never be broken. Some bonds are stronger than others and I believe that Alex and I had a bond that just kept getting stronger and stronger throughout the year. You are family when you are out on the field together. You have eachothers backs through anything. I spent a lot of time with this man. The best memories were the bus rides to practice and back where we all tormented Coach Edwards. He knows he loves us though. Another great memory was at the first pizza night of the year. Every Thursday during the season we went to monicals as a team and had all you can eat pizza. Well, Alex decided to take advantage of that and had a little much. I would say he had atleast a pizza and a half. I gave him props until it came back up. Alex and I had some great talks about many random, goofy topics. Our best talks were the times where it was just us and Coach on the bus, because some of the other guys were sick. His stories never got old. They just gave a good boost to my day. There were days where I was down on myself about football and he was always the first one to try to bring me up. Sometimes I feel like he had more confidence in me than I did myself. I appreciated that very much. I will miss Alex very much and will always hold memories of him close to my heart.

Matt Mogged

November 06, 2012 at 09:53 AM

---

“ Avrom Litin lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Avrom Litin - November 06, 2012 at 08:59 AM

---

“ Sharon Mogged lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Sharon Mogged - November 06, 2012 at 08:49 AM

---

“ Dear Becky, Tom and Judie and Family, Nothing I could say would fill the deep sadness of this most tragic time. The one thing that everyone that knew Alex or about him was how much his family loved him. He always knew that. You did everything in your power to give him all the love and affection you could. You were wonderful parents, grandmother and family to him. all of his life. Many people never experience what you were able to give him. I'm sure he will remain with you all of your days, at your side, supporting you are you were there for him. Much love to you all Patt Butti

Patt Butti - November 05, 2012 at 10:45 PM

---

“ Teleflora's Sweet Tenderness was purchased for the family of Alexander Michael Hoffman.

November 05, 2012 at 07:32 PM

---

“ Bonnie Cristensen lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Bonnie Cristensen - November 05, 2012 at 06:57 PM

---

“ Bonnie Christensen and Family purchased the Peaceful White Lilies Basket for the family of Alexander Michael Hoffman.

Bonnie Christensen and Family - November 05, 2012 at 06:55 PM

---

“ Becki Goldtrap lit a candle in memory of Alexander Michael Hoffman

Becki Goldtrap - November 05, 2012 at 04:53 PM