“ I was very saddened to hear of Bernards passing. My condolences to his family. Back in 1955 Bernard and I took a three week automobile trip out west. We visited Yellowstone National park and many other interesting places. It was a great trip that I still remember to this day.

“ Prayers for the family. Beny was in my husband's graduating class, and he was sitting next to me in the big study hall at the old high school. I always enjoyed visiting with him in the grocery store and catching up on his sister Doris and daughter Chris.
