“ Sympathies to the entire McElroy family. I grew up with the McElroys. As a teenager, I worked at BRC and went to the garage daily to see Joe and Kenny. As an adult, I taught some of the McElroys as a teacher at Reed-Custer Junior High. I have many good memories. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Loved this picture from our wedding of Aunt Bev and Uncle Joe. We were so fortunate to grow up next door them. And I always loved to stop in to see Aunt Bev when we were in town. It was great to see her and catch up on the family. Love to all!

She was a great lady. She became good friends with my Mom at Heritage. The three of us would visit alot before the virus hit. I loved bringing her goodies. She will be missed, but I know my Mom is waiting for her. ❤️
