Spending days on the lake with them fishing was his favorite, along wrestling with them. Brandon enjoyed coaching the twins when they played soccer for the New Lenox Soccer Association. His spirit will never be forgotten and his children will continue on with his legacy. Surviving is his soulmate, whom he met in 2007, Melanie Moak and their twin sons, Ryder John and Brayden Edward Sorensen; his father, Randall (Robin) Sorensen of South Wilmington; his mother, Carolyn (Robert) Howen of Morris, IL; sister, Harmony (Frank) Labanowski of Coal City, IL; two brothers, Attilio (Nina) Sorensen of South Wilmington and Dell (Danielle) Howen of Coal City; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Dennis and Susan Stafford of South Holland, IL; brother-in-law, Dennis Jay (Karen) Stafford of Chicago, IL; sister-in-law, Alyssa Stafford of South Holland; step-grandmother, Mildred Wright of Pontiac, IL; god parents, David Opyd and Kathy Schopp-Frederick; and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and many friends.

I was so honored and blessed to be Brandon's step mom. It was a pleasure watching him grow from a young boy to a honorable man. Better yet, watching him being a dad. He touched so many lives. He was taken way too soon. But my love will never die for him. Forever in my heart. Forever in my thoughts and prayers. Brandon, thanks for being you! I love you!
