“ My heartfelt condolences to the Naretto family. Brian was such a kind and hardworking man. He worked for my father Vince for many years during the 1970's. I don't know what we would have done without him and really seemed like a member of our family. He was right out of high school but was so capable and hardworking. There were times he even drove us kids to our orthodontist appointments in Kankakee. It's just so sad. Renee McGinnis
