“ Dearest Family,
I will always remember many years of growing up together and him in my wedding and marriage life with my X. Brian was a funny, helpful nice guy. I am so sorry to the family and those whom were close to him. I pray now that he will finally be at peace. Timmy my hugs go out to you, mom and Cheryl SO MUCH for I know you were a close family. I am sorry I will NOT be able to attend the services because I just started a new job and hate to miss any day's yet for I am making my way into a big company that has been needed for way to long for my sons and self. Hugs to you all and know I care and love you all. RIP my old friend Brian. Love You too.
