“ Caleb was like a big brother when he lived with us before he went into the Navy. I still have the doll he bought me when his ship was in port in Spain. Donna lived down the street from us and I think it was love at first sight. She became very close to our family while he was on tour. We were so happy when they finally married. They moved to Florida and we didn't see them as much. However, they always stayed in touch with my Mom and made a point to visit whenever they could. I'm so sorry we lost contact after my mother passed away. I will miss him and I loved him.

Thank you Debbie. My dad thought the world of Aunt Blanche and your family. I would love to see a pic of the doll. You could send me one on Facebook if you wouldn't mind. I was always a doll girl too and I still have the last ones he bought me before I got to old for them. I have never been to Washington DC but would love to see where mom and dad met. Maybe someday.

“ Dick and I always enjoyed Cal and Donna. Dick remembers that Cal was his Best Man when we were married. Both of us were shocked when we learned of Cal's passing. He was a good friend to Dick and his phone calls were appreciated. He will be greatly missed by us.

I know how much my dad enjoyed spending time with Dick. They were friends for 40 years. Mom and Dad both enjoyed your company. Keep in touch.

“ I remember Caleb lived with my family in Washington DC after the Navy. He was such a strong presence, you always knew when Caleb was in the room! I used to look up to him and wish I could be the man he was. He was so tall and strong and extremely confident. I remember Donna and him got a small apartment down the street. I'd always find a way or an excuse to visit. They were so sweet together. He was an special person that I'll never forget. My only regret is not going to see him these past years. We talked about a family reunion, but it never materialized. Love and prayers.

He was a strong presence. I'm still in shock that he's gone. I thought he would outlive us all. Thank you Peter for sharing. I love to hear of mom and dads early years together.
