“ Pops, you were always a comfort to be around. I felt like you and mom were my family. You will be greatly missed by so many people, but I am comforted in knowing that you are with the Lord.

“ Charlie will long be remembered for his continuous story telling and joking. He always had something nice to say, and was sometimes a little too boisterous especially prior to church services. He will be missed my many. It has been a blessing to have known him, been a friend, and a part of his church family. Frank & Noreen Brandle.
