“ I love you Chuck and my heart is broken. I miss you every minute of every day. I remind myself that you were so hurting and so broken that I would not bring you back if I could because you are with Jesus now and there in heaven you have no sadness, no despair, no discomfort, no depression, and no addiction. Your only craving is to worship Jesus, you walk on golden streets, you sing with the angels, and you are waiting for me. "Save a place for me, Save some space for me - I'll be there soon". I will finish what I started with Angeliah, what I promised you that I would do and I will take the best care that I can of her for the rest of my life. But when I am finished here I look forward to seeing you Chuck. After I see Jesus I will look for you and you remember too "look for me, for I will be there too". I love you son and I am so proud of you. You fought a tough battle that most of us cannot understand but you fought it always, you fought so very hard. Now you rest. Rest and find peace in Jesus for he is the very Prince of Peace and he will take wonderful care of you. I love you son.....Always have....Always will.

You are my Sunshine, my only Sunshine, you make me happy, when skies are gray, you'll never know dear, how much I love you, Please don't take my Sunshine away.

“ Chuck was an amazing guy all through highschool to adulthood. We were friends since freshmen year just not close til he found me on Facebook a few years ago an was a stitch ,a joy an hilarious goofy guy who had dreams an goals to accomplish even though he struggled through so much in life. He enjoyed talking to me an venting out his problems an i did what anyone would do was listen an be his guide to be a better man for his daughter. He is up there not in pain an he was afraid to ask for help from anyone he was strong willed an stubborn at times. He was just a joy to be his good friend for so many years. I will miss his texts an facebook posts being goofy I am so very sorry to his family for his loss. He was one amazing guy ,friend anyone could have .

“ I have many good memories of chucky .. How he taught me how to play Hacky Sack, HE would pretend to lose dizzy dizzy dinosaur so I Could win, our fun xmas with Grandma Sandy . The time he tried to help me convince Grandma Sandy into letting me get an iguana. One xmas I Got a barbie corvette and he got tons of action figures and i convinced him to let me put his new action figures in my barbie corvette and he just played along ... He had such a good heart and was an amazing person... love you chucky ill never forget the childhood memories we had together ♡♡♡love cousin Jenny Thomas

“ From the first time I saw him, Chuck always had a special place in my heart. He had a loving and generous heart and his beautiful smile is now shines on his daughter's sweet face. I have many happy memories of Chuck from the times he visited us as a little tyke to play with his buddy Paul, or when he stayed with us and went tubing on the lake for the first time, but my most precious memories are the times he said, "I love you Aunt Joan." We will miss him always until we meet in heaven where there is no more sorrow or pain.

“ I have many memories of Chuckie, but one of my favorite ones is when he helped me put a new roof on our garage. He was about 10 years old. I showed him how to nail the shingles down and he was doing a pretty good job of it, and then he hit his thumb. He didn't cry. He just said, "That's it. I'm going in the house." I said, "I understand." In about 10 minutes, I heard the ladder rattle and there he was nailing shingles down again.

Then he hit his thumb again, and once again said, "That's it! I'm going in the house!"

About 10 minutes later, he came back and started shingling the roof again, until, of course, he hit his thumb again and said, "That's it! I'm going in the house!"

That was repeated several more times, and each and every time he came back. At the end of the day, we had a new roof on the garage, put on by a proud grandpa and a 10 year old boy with a very sore thumb who wouldn't quit, even though it hurt.

God bless you, Chuckie.

“ On July 13, 1985, a beautiful baby was born into our family. Our first grandchild, a little boy, Chuckie.

We were so proud of him. He was always sweet, smart and animated. He learned so fast and had an extraordinary memory. He had muscles like his dad and loved to work on construction projects with his Grandpa and muscle training workouts in the garage with Grandpa, too.

We would pretend sword fight with sticks in the yard, bounce balls off the roof, much to Grandpa's dismay, and go swimming in the pool early in the morning. He went on vacation with us to Missouri, Wisconsin Dells, and camping in Kankakee.

Everywhere I look in our home, I have a memory of that little boy. He brought us so much joy!

Then he gave us our very first great-grandchild, a little girl, Angeliah, and what a blessing she is.

We grieve for Chuckie today. Our hearts are broken at such a loss. We will never forget you, Chuckie.

“ Chuckie was a strong, sweet, kind person. I have so many fun memories of him when he was younger. My favorite one is me and him, (he was dressed as a mini Santa) dropping off Christmas gifts for mom in the neighborhood. He was so excited to do it and everyone LOVED him!! He was full of energy and was so smart! I know that no one understands when life is ended so abruptly at such a young age. It makes me feel angry and sad and helpless. So I am praying for peace and comfort for all of us who loved Chuckie and will miss him so much.
