“ What can one even begin to say when the woman who brought all 9 pounds, 15 ounces of you into this world is suddenly, and unexpectedly, gone? While mom was definitely working through a few significant health issues the last year or two, nobody expected to hear “mom is gone” over the phone this morning. I am so deeply saddened and broken today. It feels near impossible to be the brave, strong man that my mom raised and would want me to be at this exact moment. Jenn Kubinski, Alexa Kubinski, Drew Kubinski, and I are all very lucky to have had my mom to guide us and impart any wisdom she could in her years on this earth. At only 4’ 9” tall, she could still drop me to my knees in an instant with just the stern tug of an earlobe whenever I got out of line. From a sad and broken son to his “mudder”I will miss you, forever love you, and reluctantly leave the next time we meet in God’s hands. The person I am today is, in no small part, because of your hard work the last 79 years. Rest peacefully Mom.

Mom was definately one of a kind, though she was not 4'9, we all towered over her in size, so she felt that way at times. We (Larry, June, Cathy, Christy and myself), also miss her. Raina, Carey(Lilly, Anthony and Dana) , Nick, Colleen (Covy), Alexis, and my Husband Frank Davito miss her. Christy, Jade, Kohl, Ryan and her husband Kevin Fischer miss her. Cathy, Shaina (Nathaniel, Jayden, Annalyse and Sophia),Stephan (Fae and Felicity), Hannan, Aubrey and Stanley miss her. Larry (Gianna) and his wife Colleen miss her. June (Olivia, Ethan and Molly) and her husband Scott VanPinsker miss her. THANK YOU to everyone who left memories of our Mom. You , also, touched her life in ways that we are thankful for.

“ You will be dearly missed. From the day you moved in next door our families became one. And when that fence came down - LOL or the hose water fights. Watching the kids when they were little and new ones arriving (Christy & Jimmy) and seeing them grow up to adults. Your family was truly blessed. I am so glad we had time as a family. Love you and will miss you
