“ I can hear her booming voice greeting me hello and the jingle of her charm bracelet. And don't forget Raymond's "wings" on her collar. Chris was a "take charge" kind of gal and I admired her spunk. Her southern accent was a tribute to the heritage she was so proud of. The Ohlhues summer visits were the highlight of my year. Rest in peace Chris and tell Grandma Ohlhues that I still miss her. My sincerest sympathy to Kay, Jan and their families.
