“ When I was 7-10 years old, Uncle Clarence, Aunt Florence and my two cousins would come to visit Ma and Pa and we all would be so excited because we didn't get to see them often, since they lived up north and we were in Tennessee. We would eat big meals, play games, sing songs and have so much fun! Uncle Clarence was always laughing and telling stories. I'll always remember him as a happy, jovial person with a warm heart and he will be dearly missed.
