“ Dave had a way to light up the world and anyone around him. One memory I have of Dave proves just that. We were at a Garth Brooks concert in Chicago, we had an amazing evening. On the way out to the car as you could imagine there were thousands of people at the concert. Everyone was moving toward their cars seemed to be a very calm and mature crowd. All of a sudden Dave , jumped on the hood of somebodies car and started howling and yelling. Within seconds the calm crowd went nuts! We met all kinds of people and had an even better evening because of well, Dave was Dave. Mike Leonard.

The first time I noticed Dave in school was my freshman year and he belted out the song "You've lost that loving feeling" for no reason at all in front of everyone, laughing and with the biggest smile on his face. Dave was charismatic and funny and I don't think I ever saw him without a smile, even when he was going through hard times. He was a great, lovable, good-looking goofball, and I will always remember him that way. My heart goes out to his family, especially his kids ~ I can't imagine the loss they feel. Dave, I hope that you are looking down from Heaven and finally seeing how loved you were, and I hope others will learn from this tragedy how short life is.
