Her family includes her husband of 24 years, Sidney; children, John Orr (son) Michelle Orr (daughter in law), step children Paul and Ashley Phillips, JoAn (Phillips) and Ben Willis, Nathan and Sarah Phillips; grandchildren, Connor and Grayson Orr, Max and Ryan Phillips, Tyler Frost, Ted and Kate Willis, Abigail, Mia and Breck Phillips. Sister: Arlene (Dougal) and Tom Raatz; and nieces and a nephew.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Bernice Dougal. Diane was born on August 26, 1948. In Chicago, IL and grew up a Cubs fan along with her family. She graduated from Mother Guerin High School and later attended Loyola University in Chicago to study education. After college she met her first husband, John Orr and they moved to Indiana where they started their business, The Crystal Rainbow, to create and repair stained glass creations. They were married for 24 years before he preceded her in death. Diane began working at ACME steel where she met Sid. They were married and moved to Lake Shannon where parties were a weekend past time! She loved having company! Together they enjoyed traveling, playing golf and taking boat rides. They also loved to attend youth sporting events, band concerts and celebrations for all of her 10 grandchildren! Diane loved her friends, family, and always welcomed everyone! Anytime a group of people, whether big or small, arrived she would always say “It’s a party!”

Memorial donations in Diane’s honor may be made to The American Stroke Association at stroke.org.

“ Sid & Family:

I am extremely sad to hear about the passing of Diane. She was a remarkable lady that I loved when I worked with the two of you at Acme Steel. The two of you were meant to be together and were a great team since the first time you got together. All my love!! Dave Gue.
