“ *I worked next to Maxine at Rockwell In Downers Grove. She rode to work with my ex and myself in the mornings and home again. I'd hear her chuckling in the back seat when I was talking and I'd turn to her laughing and say "I can't help it I'm from NY"....she was always amused by my NY accent. She was such a great lady. She'd tell the best stories and always have such a great attitude a no nonsense, no drama person but sweet and funny in her own subtle way. Rest In Peace Maxine.
