

Edward John Dedo Jr.

September 30, 1915 - February 25, 2010

Edward Dedo, 94, of Wilmington, IL, passed away Thursday, February 25, 2010 at his home. He was born September 30, 1915 in Dupage Township, IL to the late Edward John Dedo, Sr., and Clara F. (nee Frolich) Dedo. Edward was an avid farmer. Surviving were his wife, the former Ila Mae Eichelberger of Wilmington, whom he married December 20, 1941 in Indiana; three grandchildren, Anthony (Heather) Dedo of Wilmington, David (Katy) Dedo of Huston, TX and Jenny (Michael) Campbell of Mazon, IL; nine great-grandchildren, Mikey, Austin, Olivia, Emily, Abby, Anthony, Andrew, Morgan, and Katelynn. Preceding him in death were his son and daughter in law, Wendell and Kathie Dedo; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Harold and Arlene Dedo and Albert and Evelyn Dedo; and a sister and brother-in-law, Elsie and Enoch Stafford. Funeral services were at the R.W. Patterson Funeral Homes, Ltd., Braidwood Chapel, Tuesday, March 2, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Greg Linkous officiating. Interment was in Wesley Township Cemetery in Ritchie, IL. The pallbearers were Brian Milton, Eric Milton, Mike Campbell, Aaron Thorson, Pete McLenighan, and Joe Donohue. The visitation was Tuesday, March 2, from 9:30-11:00 a.m.