“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I went to school (1st and 2nd grades) with Dena, who was one of the kind souls who invited me over after school (likely because Tommy liked to harass me). My social skills were very limited, yet I was welcomed into the Guest home. My prayers are with you, Dena, and with your family as this most difficult time. While I have no specific memory of your mother, I recognize that she most surely was a kind and compassionate woman who left the world a better place!

“ I will always remember Em as a quiet but strong person who loved her family deeply and enjoyed watching all the young grandchildren as they grew. She was excellent at crocheting beautiful little trinkets for everyone. She had a very strong Faith in God which guided her through His trials in her life. Em has certainly earned her angel wings. We will miss her.
