

Frances E. Wallace

November 9, 1940 - April 16, 2023

Frances E. Wallace

Age 82, of Diamond, IL went to be with her wonderful Lord and Savior on Sunday, April 16, 2023 in Morris, IL. Born on November 9, 1940 to the late Harry and Elizabeth (nee Kapraun) Klein. She was raised on the farm and graduated with the class of 1958 from Henry High School in Henry, IL. She moved to Peoria, IL and attended Midstate College of Commerce. On June 15, 1968 she married James Wallace in Peoria. They moved to Wilmington, IL on a farm raising corn and beans. They also raised and raced quarter horses and thoroughbreds. Fran hired in a Caterpillar on July 1, 1966 and transferred to the Joliet location in 1968 when she married Jim who also transferred to the Joliet plant. She retired after 34.9 years of service. Fran loved gardening, southern gospel music, horses and antiques. Her greatest joy in life was telling others about Jesus and the Eternal Life they could have by being born again.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Jim on 3-4-2018; brothers, Robert Klein and Harold Klein; very special niece, Frances Mae Glore; step-son, Scott Wallace; and grandson, Korey Carr.

Surviving are step-daughter, Cindy (Dan) Carr; grandchildren, Kevin (Amanda) Carr and Kyle (Caitlin) Carr; great-grandchildren, Jocelyn, Kody and Alayna Carr; beloved friend and like a son, Robert Hayward and his daughter, Sarah (Daran) Mathews and grandchildren, Braydon and Bella, and his daughter, Elizabeth Hayward; grandkids, Lucy, Jeremy, nephew Frankie and sister Pauline Indahar; and beloved, Christina (Rick) Campbell; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

“ I remember the day she was saved and baptized in First Baptist Church in Wilmington, Illinois. I too remember her love for Jesus and how she shared and witnessed boldly in the antique shops and in her community. I know I will see her again in her heavenly home.
