“ Gary was a good friend to me and my grandchildren for the 2 years i have been his neighbor and caregiver he was a goofy happy gentleman. He enjoyed shadowlakes where he moved to and was able to enjoy the lakes and trails out on his golf cart with his loyal dog Georgia Lynn always by his side my grand sons would often run him over a Pepsi and doughnuts and my Grandaon Roman who has autisim had said when i explained to him God needed Gary ,Roman said that he was his best friend and he will miss him. The boys sent up balloons to heaven with their note to gary one on a pepsi lable and 1 on a doughnut coupon .Gary will be missed and truely rememberd by my family Rest in peace friend.

them boys! Roman sent him a Pepsi wrapper i told him God would turn it into a bottle for him and Caius sent a 5 dollar cupon for a box of doughnuts at the heaven Casey's
