I will miss my cousin Gary Lynn so very much. He and I grew up together and were like brother and sister. He was a funny guy and had a dry sense of humor like his mom. Just know that he's with his mom, dad and brother and we will all meet there someday. I love you all and prayers are sent.

We know how very, very special Gary was to each of you and all who knew him and how very much you loved him. God has him in his loving hands now, called to heaven and to be your Angel, watching over you from above. Words are inadequate to express our sadness, but know our deepest sympathy, thoughts, love and prayers are with your family today and always.
