“ Debra Corn Lee, As children we and Mom and Dad (Marguerite and Marty Corn) spent many a time visiting with George and Joyce and their family. He was a very special man. When I came home to visit with Mom shortly before she died, we had plans to go and visit George. It was one of the things that Mom wanted to do, but God had other plans to take her home. I told George that at her funeral. Now they are rejoicing together at Jesus' side in heaven. My heart goes out to your family.

“ A great smile and a firm handshake always greeted me when he saw me. I remember the days when Bobby used to cut hair in Dick's garage and Joe, Lefty, Frank, and others gathered to tell tales of Braidwood's past while waiting their turn. Bobby could keep everyone laughing with his wild stories while cutting hair. I always looked forward to seeing Uncle Dick(though I am really not family) at the annual pig roast at Lefty and Laura's farm in Wilmington. Even though he is gone, great memories of him remain with us. Please accept my sympathy and condolences on the death of a good man and your loved one.

Jimmy and I will always remember our high school days and your parents were so kind to always have us over for get-togethers. When we moved into the neighborhood I remember your mother walking down with the coconut cake to welcome us. Always remember seeing him sitting out in the chair give us a wave
Love always Jimmy and Peggy
