“ I grew up with Greg. Went all through school with him. Had a lot of good times. Still remember racing around the BRC. They never did catch us. I remember sneaking up behind Greg, turning on my police light and bright lights and scaring the living daylights out of him. We had a lot of laughs and a lot of good times.

“ I never got the chance to work side by side with Greg but always admired his eagerness to help others. His service at Dow and with the Fire Services were both examples of putting the needs of others ahead of himself. He will be greatly missed by all. My Thoughts and Prayers are extended to all of Greg's Family and Friends during this difficult time.

“ This is one of my favorite memories of Greg.....Dow had a safety program where employees would bring in pictures of their family members and post them on a bulletin board that was titled "My reason for working safe." I was looking at the pictures on the board and Greg walked up next to me. I asked him, "Greg is there a picture of your kids up here?" He kind of tilted his head down and looked at me over the top of his glasses and said, "I'm not bringing in a picture of MY teenage daughter for you perverts to drool over!" I laughed....but at the same time understood how much he loved and charished his daughter. She held a very special place in his heart.
