“ I don't ever remember meeting Hugh, Jr., but I remember seeing a picture of him when he was in his twenties. He was one handsome man, just like his Daddy, my uncle Houston. Uncle Houston was my Daddy's brother. My Dad Owen Weathersby was the oldest of the five boys; and there were two girls--Aunt Trudy and Aunt Bessie. They're all gone now, but they are certainly not forgotten. I know you loved him. Hopefully, he had that Weathersby charm. My thoughts are with you and all the Weathersby family.
