“ My Aunt Jeannie was 9 years old when I was born. My sister Jane and I would spend a week or so with Grandma and Grandpa in the summer when we were little. I remember being so impressed with Aunt Jeannie that she could chew gum and make it pop in her mouth. I loved how she wore her hair too. I wanted the same style. When I saw her in 1984 I braided her hair for her and realized her hair was the same color as mine. I thought that was pretty awesome. I am said she is gone, but so relieved she is at peace. Love you Aunt Jeannie.
