“ So sorry didn't know she passed

“ We were sad to hear at church this morning of her passing. She sat in the same pew at church as my mother and I. We have missed her at mass for the last month. She was such a sweet lady. With sympathy and prayers to her family and friends.

“ We've spent the better part of 20 years doing almost everything together. From shopping to the laundrymat to wash our comforters. Our weekend pinochle games that lasted to the wee hours of 11pm. We use to laugh at how early we puckered out. She made me laugh til I tinkled. Sometimes we couldn't catch our breath. She even got me to go back to church with her for a while. I hated moving away, and wish I was there during this time, but how lost I'd be now. She never had a bad thing to say about anyone, and if you did, she would stop you dead in your tracks. She taught me how to look at the brighter side of things, and to give without seeking reward. I love this woman more than words can express. She will be missed by many. She touched so many souls, and enriched their lives.

I love you, Auntie!

“ Kay was such a sweetheart. We knew her through immaculate conception church in Braidwood and visited with her every Friday at Aperion Care in Wilmington when our Legion of Mary would pray the rosary and offer communion. She was loved by so many of the residents. She always had them flocking to her side as she gave out cookies and candies to her many friends. I teased her for being a “dealer” as she would ration out instant coffee, cookies, and candy to the residents! She was very devout and loved God. Another memory I will treasure is the way her eyes would light up when Arie came into the dining room, and his in turn would light up when he saw her. As they say and held hands you could feel the love flow between them. She was a frequent parishioner at church on Sundays and on First Saturdays. She was so proud of her kids and all the grandkids, collecting small stuffed animals for them. May your own memories give you peace. She was a dear lady and I am proud to call her my friend.
