“ Kevin I will never forget the first time I met you when my very best friend started dating you many years ago and I could never have been happier for her I know you were the love of her life and I know she was the love of yours. Though life wasn't fair to your family you always leaned on each other for all of the uphill struggles that you both faced together and God knows there were many. That was love. You two are joined again but this time for eternity and you both can carry on the love that you shared with no end. Rest in peace Kevin. I will never forget the memories that Mark and I have and all the fun times we shared with you and Robyn. We love you both until we meet again.

“ I had 17 months of love and laughter with a man whose life was filled with pain and tragedy. Whether it was a quiet dinner at my house or flying off to Florida for the weekend, it was always fun. He took to the roll of grandpa to my grandchildren and loved them like his own. Always there to lend a helping hand to my kids and family wherever he was needed. He rode on the BACK of my trike for moral support and to help me remember how to ride. We never got to finish what we started but we will meet again and carry on. Rest in peace. I will love you forever.
