“ I had the privilege of working with Kurt in the Drug Court Program for several years. Kurt was an outspoken man who strongly advocated for his clients. Being of the opposite political persuasion, Kurt reveled in engaging me in debate frequently. While this could sometimes get a bit heated, it didn't stand in the way of developing a friendship. In addition to being an excellent lawyer and a fierce advocate, Kurt was a generous and loyal friend. Kurt was quick to offer help before even being asked. Kurt was never shy about sharing his faith and led his life in a way that was an embodiment of Christ's teachings. I am a better man for having known him.
