“ I will never forget Lois. She could make me laugh all through tax season & beyond. Such a lovely character!! She, Bill & Mary followed me out of H&R Block...drove in crummy weather a good 45 mins just to have me do their tax returns. I retired 2 yrs ago & I wrote thank you notes.....this one was the hardest for me to write. I loved her as if she were my own mom. Wonderful tough cookie! you rest now gal!

“ So very sorry to hear of my friend passing away I was Lois's mailman for many years and sad to hear she was no longer living in Custer Park Lois never forgot to give me a nice card and gift at Christmas and it was always nice to chat with her. She lived very close to my wife's family and was also a friend of theirs Rest In Peace Lois
