“ Dear Lou, I am so glad that you and Mom are finally together again. I know she has been waiting patiently for you. The two of you had such a special relationship and love which was the envy of us all. Thank you for being such a wonderful husband, father, step-father, grandfather and friend to many. We all have many special memories of you and look forward to sharing them with you when we see you again. Love, Jacque Martin, step daughter
