“ Lynn and I have been life long best friends. I remember the very first time I ever saw Lynn. She had come out to the farm we lived on and was standing out by the barn. I smiled and waved at her and she turned to me and stuck out her tongue. We were in the second grade. Somewhere along the line she and I became like sisters. I now live in Missouri and do not get home as often as I would like, but when I do I usually made sure that I either talked to or visited Lynn. I am so grateful that I was able to visit her at the hospital before she passed. I am heart broken over this loss. I will miss her so much, but I now have another angel in heaven and she is without pain. May she forever rest in peace. Good bye Lynn.
