“Mary was a wonderful person, always friendly and smiling. The Macholz family had a cottage next door to ours along the Kankakee River. When Ed became disabled, I admired her where-with-all to take him to the cottage in the van, take him out of the van in his wheelchair to sit outside at the picnic table, or she'd put up the ramp and take him inside. She really had it all together, so independent and capable. She stayed cheerful throughout. There is one more bright light in heaven now. My condolences to Steve and Linda! - Mary Wirth
