“ My name is Suzanne Huston Johnston. I graduated from Braidwood High School in 1963. I remember Mary Ellen as not only beautiful but sweet and kind to those she knew. Also, very popular in school. Unfortunately I haven't seen her since school, but immediately recognized her picture in the Wilmington Free Press.. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Thinking of you, Jeff and Aubrie. Your Mom's laugh is my strongest memory, and she did love to laugh. And who wouldn't laugh about sticking that stinky dog Sniffer in and out of a window from and apartment! Love to you, Sande

“ Sorry that we lost our internet connection previously --- Mary Ellen was our brother's (Jerry's) first wife, She was beautiful and talented. She would sing "Someday my prince will come.." into the blackness of those hot and humid Illinois summer nights so many years ago-- and her voice would send chills down our young spines. Let her family know we will miss her.
