“ I will miss Brother Mike so much! I didn't know him as well as others, as I only got to meet him in the last few years. But I have been left with the impression of a kind, generous man with an exuberant, uplifting testimony. He was an encouragement to me and I will greatly miss him being in service with us. To his precious family and friends, my heart and prayers are with you, I love you all! Thankful for the promise of a New and Better Morning not so far away.
