MR

What a great pleasure it was to know you. Although our times together were brief we certainly packed a ton of memories into every single minute we were all together. Without you we never would have learned some of the most important things in life. Expressions we used just about every day and always with a huge grin and a story to explain how and where they came from Those of you who knew him best are missing him dearly, but we are also the ones who laugh the hardest with the everyday expressions of, "I'm headed to the growler to drop a few friends off at the pool." My personal favorite, " Big Jim and the twins." Your friends (which were many) obviously loved you dearly. Jerry Shields, T.J. Jergens, there is a very special place for you in not just the afterlife but in our hearts as well. Your kindness, patience, humor and innumerable acts of kindness will never be forgiven. Mike was the common denominator that kept us all in touch. We will be in Illinois the end of October/beginning of November and will let you guys know for sure. We are hopeful to get together and raise a glass or twenty to our friend Mike With love and affection, Michelle and Michael Rohulich

“ There are many memories. One in particular was when Mike took a road trip to Nova Scotia on his motorcycle. He had lobsters sent back home and had us all over for lobster dinner. Mike was a very generous soul and always loved his life, friends and family. He was very proud of his service in the Marines and we were all proud of him as well. My prayers are abundant for all of the family. Alex, Becky, Anthony, Peggy and Andrea, I know how much he will be missed. I'm elated that you knew the Lord and are now resting in His arms. Say HI to Dave while you are there and throw a line in to catch a big one! Rest in peace brother-in-law.
