“ I worked with Mildred at Fox center and we rode together whenever we could. I remember one day we got stuck in a large snow drift just at the edge of town...needless to say we did not make it to work that day. I have several recipes she shared with me and I still use them. I think of her when I make a cucumber and cheese sandwich something she shared with me when I was young. She was a fantastic person and a good friend to have at work. She taught me a lot. My heart goes out to her family and I will keep all of you in my prayers. Sincerely, Annette (Residori) Johnson
