“ Nick,
Not a day goes by that I can't stop thinking about you. The words left unsaid. The big hugs you gave. So many memories, that in will forever cherish. I have to tell you at least 50 times a day that I love and miss you. I know you're smiling down, embracing all of us that are suffering. I know this is something that I'll never truly get over. I know I'll see you again, I know you'll visit me in my dreams. 37 and a half years was not enough. Just know that your big brother will always be looking up to you. I'll embrace every I love you, that you said to me. Brothers are best friends forever. I love you, Nick! Watch over all of us. You're now our Guardian Angel. Life does go on, but it will never be the same. Hugs from your big brother.

“ I don't even knows where to start. I'm glad you were my brother. The unconditional love you give is serving to none. An amazing brother, uncle, father. Our time got cut short. The hurt is real. I love you little brother. I will make sure know one forgets anything about you. Please watch over us all. Help us deal with the realization of life without you. I miss you so much already. Love from here to heaven.

“ I still remember the day you found out we were having a baby girl. How proud you were. All the concerts we went to. All of our favorite songs and singing in the car together. The day Sarah was born how your face lit up when you got to meet her. You will be missed and I know you'll be watching over our baby girl always. For all eternity ❤️
