“ RIP Nick. I am honored to have had the pleasure of knowing you. Every time I watch the movie Home Alone I think about you at the end of the movie when Kevin is looking out the window. It reminds me if you at that age. Sending prayers and hugs to the Peddicord and Gentry family.

“ Its with a heavy heart that I express my deepest sympathy. Having known Nick for a lifetime, some of the things I will remember most would be his heart, and how big it was; his kind and caring nature that was genuine, and of course his smile, and how truly infectious it was.

One great memory I want to share is this: Nick was actually my first boyfriend and actually took me on my very first date; a grade school dance. We 'double-dated' with Krissy Pesavento and Adam Russell and 20 years later I can still remember how nervous I was when my step-mom dropped me and Krissy off at the school to meet our dates.

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love."

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of the loss of one of my former students...Nick and I had a very close relationship during his time in high school...We had some very meaningful "talks" about issues outside of the school...I will treasure the memories of a very good friend.

“ I have so many great memories with you. Since I was about 16 you have always been in my life! We were always getting in trouble together lol, nothing too serious mostly innocent kid stuff but we always had fun!! Your smile your laugh always made the worst situation better! I will miss that the most.. your laugh. I remember getting our matching tattoos right before I moved to Arizona. They looked so bad but it didn't matter because they were ours and we did it together. Now every time i look at my tattoo, my heart will ache because I miss you so much! I wish we had more time together. I wish I wasn't so far away. I love you dearly Nick. You will always be my "number 1".
