Oh honey, you are so welcome. It was the least I could do. I know she wasn't my blood but I love her and the rest of your family that I have met and been around since I was 18 years old. She meant a lot to me and my girls. I was so thankful that her and Aunt Ruby was there with me when your Uncle RW passed away. I am just so thankful for all the time I got with your momma and Mamaw and Papaw Worley, Aunt Linda, Aunt Geraldine, Aunt Ruby and Aunt Shiny and definitely Michelle and Nellie. I love y'all and still keeping you in my prayers and thoughts.

“ David, Millie And the rest of Aunt Pemmies family (Aunt Ruby, Aunt Linda and Aunt Geraldine) and friends I'm so very sorry for your losses..there are no words to ease your pain I know from experience..I didn't know Angela but she's a very Beautiful girl and my heart breaks for you all! I love my Aunt Pemmie ❤️ And There is one memory above others that stands out..my Aunt Pemmie taught me how to swim at Grenada Lake when I was young, she took me and my sisters out on a big float PUSHED US OFF AND SAID NOW SWIM OR DROWN!!! She was laughing her behind off! 😂 Needless to say I STARTED SWIMMING 😭 Everyone that knew Aunt Pemmie knew what a character she was and I will continue to love her and remember her always ❤️ She has always reminded me of my mother (Lula Mae Worley Jackson) AKA" SHINEY" David,Millie and all the rest of her loved ones my heart is truly hurting for you 😭 I'm Praying for you all 🙏 God Bless
