“ I remember when Pete and his family still lived in Wilmington in the early 70's. Pete and I were in St. Rose School and walked to my house one day after school. Pete would twirl around on the kitchen chair nonstop looking at the bananas. He wouldn't stop until my mom asked him if he would like a banana! I still have texts on my phone from a few months back with Pete saying he misses his favorite banana aunt!!

“ One of my closest cousins, friend, and brother in Christ. Pedro you will be missed immensely. We were thicker than thieves growing up, and even though we lived many miles apart as we got older when we would re-unite we'd pick right up where we left off. Love you brother, we will see each other again.
