“ Phyllis was like a second mother to me while growing up. I was at the Camplin house every single day of my whole young life. She is the reason I became an artist and a teacher. She was an absolutely huge influence on me. She was so soft hearted, creative, loving and beautiful. Her humor, original personality, take me as I am attitude, spirit of child-like wonder....her open heart, I will never forget. I can hear her laugh so clearly still. My whole family loved her, my son loved her. I'm sorry for the time lost and not being able to tell her these things that I so deeply feel today and have always. I hope she is at peace and that her family, that I love so deeply, finds comfort. Thank you, Phyllis. ❤️ With love, respect and admiration, Renee Lee
