Richard L. Staples

Age 55, of Wilmington, IL, passed away Thursday, November 2, 2017 at home. Born February 22, 1962 in Augsburg, Germany.

Surviving are his parents, Charles and Irmgard (nee Loehner) Staples of Wilmington; two daughters, Roxanne (Kaleb) Barnhart and Riki Staples; two sisters, Sandra Staples of Braidwood, IL and Diane (Kerry) Proffitt of Wilmington; numerous nieces and nephews; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins in Germany.

Cremation rites have been accorded.

Private services will be held.

The world is a different shade -
now that your color has gone away.
The earth has a different tone -
now that it no longer plays your musical note.
But there is a new harmony in the sky -
The gates have opened for you so wide.
No more rejection
No more fear

No more insecurities
No more loss for you my dear
A new creature you are - high above, with the stars.
Only peace, joy, and love -
you travel now, as with wings of a dove.
God has swallowed you up in His arms.
We will miss you down here -
so away, and so far.
Rest now - dear son and brother - with love from our hearts - your sisters and mother.

“ You are free as freebird now my friend,
It's way too sad that it had to end.
You're wings are spread like the soaring dove,
You've been taken home to the peace above.
I will cherish our memories of friendship and fun,
It's time to carry on, carry wayward son. ♡
