“ I didn't get the pleasure of knowing Uncle Bob for a long time, but the one thing that stuck in my mind was that he loved to take pictures. Augie and I would be playing basketball in the front yard and Uncle would be walking Mabel (like usual). He usually had his camera by his side and would try to "sneak" take pictures of us together. It was a little obvious, but we played along. I thought it was precious, and it always put a smile on my face.
