“ I am deeply saddened to hear this and my prayers go out to Scott's family and friends. I've known Scott for years in the Millwrights and have many great memories of getting to work with him. Scott had an absolutely unique gift to make people laugh, me especially. So many funny memories in the time we worked together. It's hard to think I will not get a chance to see him again at a new job and catch up on old times like always. He had such a unique and one-of-a-kind personality that you won't find in anyone else. A one of one. RIP Scotty. Gonna miss you brother!!!

Scott was my neighbor for over a year. He was someone that I knew I could call if I needed anything and he was always up for a pinball game or 5! He had the sweetest smile and soul. RIP Scott, I will be praying for your son and family.
