“ We were children, we were close-we ran around together-you led-I followed. Often trouble ensued, we together, broke the rules.

As we grew older and our adult life kept us mostly apart- all of the fun, laughter and adventures have always felt like yesterday in my heart.

I will always remember your infectious laugh and beautiful smile.

RIP, Cousin...Darlene Kornacker

“ Mom - May your time with the Lord bring you peace and glory. May all of your days be filled with the same love, laughter and joy that you brought amongst this family. May the light shine down bright upon us as a reflection of the never-ending love that you have shown through all our lives. May you rest in peace, mama.

Love you my precious mother - Miss you like crazy.

Love your farm baby,

“ I have so many special memories of growing up on the farm, spending so much time with her while she was pregnant with Jenny, and working at Reco's with her and Deb. Her presence on this earth will be missed, but her spirit will live on in the beautiful girls she raised. Heaven certainly gained another special angel when she walked through the door. Love and miss you Sheila. ♡
