“ Aunt Shirley....The best drum stick player in my heart and Queen of fashion..you dressed me up like a beautiful princess...Your where like my second mom. You, Sam, Babe and Me had soooo much fun playing hide and seek from Uncle Monte when he would come home from work. I will nevrerrrr forget that and the years of fun we had together!!!! There is way too much great to say about u and U.Monte it would take me a long time but short it was a blast daily with both of u Alwayssss!!! You will Always be in my thoughts and Memories (prayers) with what u guys left with me. I Love U Always, Your Neice Melody Kurtenbach 🥰xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxox🥰

“ Kurt,
So sorry to hear about your mom. I'm sure you don't remember us, we were neighbors when you & I were little. My mom, grandma & I spent a lot of time with your mom & dad and you. They were the best neighbors and we loved them a lot. Your mom & dad are together again & getting to dance like they loved to do. Thoughts & Prayers to you.

“ Shirley was a good friend and a fun person - enjoyed knowing her while in Essex and being around her with Lions and other things. She and Monte were quite the dancers and loved watching them dance when we were around them. Sympathies to Curt their son and the family. She will be missed.
