“ I was so sorry to read in the paper about Shirley's passing. We shared many happy times together over the years. We played bridge for many years with different groups of friends. We also took a couple of bus trips, too, with some of our friends. The last time I saw Shirley was at her 90th birthday party. That was really a happy occasion. I send my condolences to her daughters and their families. She was a lovely person.

“ So sorry to hear about this, girls. She was one of the fine ladies of the old neighborhood. Will always remember her letting us play ball in your backyard. Except none of us were too happy to hit a home run with that fence you had!! I'm sure she and my mom are having a good chat about now. Take care, be strong. I know how hard it is when you lose that second parent.

“ I had the pleasure of being Shirley’s neighbor at Park Pointe. We ate meals together for the 3 months I was there and I always enjoyed our conversations. She always scared me the way she would transfer from walker to chair. I was so afraid she would fall. So sorry to hear of her passing. My condolences to her daughters and families who she spoke about often. May she RIP. Brenda
