“ Mom,
It's Christmas Eve again. We miss you and remember the first year you moved to Cincinnati near us. Big Bobby came over and got you about 6 in the morning. That's when we had the whole family, grandkids and all stay over on Christmas Eve. So Christmas morning we convinced the grandsons that Santa had brought you over on his sleigh. It was such a fun time. So glad we had those times and the memories of them. Miss all the Christmases at home when we were little and our family was together for the holidays. It's been a good life, just wish we all had more time together and more Christmas memories. There's never enough. Love to all, you, dad, Eddie, Aunt Margaret, Aunt Dot and all the family and friends I may have not mention. Merry Christmas, We love you all. Oh and happy 70th anniversary (22nd).

“ Hi Mom and family,
Another year ended and now a new one. I thought about you through out the holidays. Sure miss you being here. Funny today we found a birthday card you had sent Big Bobby back in 1998. I had put it in a drawer that we keep a lot of old stuff in and decided was going to give it a real cleaning out and read all the old cards and seen tons of old pictures but in the special card was still a five dollar bill you had sent him for his birthday. What a special surprise. There were cards for when I got had an operation, birthday cards, get wells cards from you but to still have the five dollars was such a special feeling. Big Bobby said to put it in a special place so it doesn't get spent, cause it was something you touched before sending it. He really misses you also. Talk with you again soon. Love to you and all the family on that side of life.

“ Don't think of Mom as gone away..her journey's just began..
Life holds so many facets..and this earth is only one..
Just think of her as resting..from the sorrows and the tears..
In a place of warmth and comfort..where there are no more days and years..
Just think of how she must be wishing.. that we could know today..
How nothing but our sadness..can really pass away..
Just think of her as living..In the hearts of those she touched..
For nothing loved is ever lost.. And your Mom was loved so much...

*It has been many years ..but I still remember each one of you.
I am comforted for you, to know that you have each other to lean on at this sad time.
Know that your familys are in my thoughts and prayers as you all grieve the loss of your precious Mother..
