Terry was a great guy, when I joined the club 2 years ago he treated me like he had known me my whole life. Very sad to see him go. Will miss seeing him.

“ I grew up with Terry and always found him to be funny and a great guy. He was so proud and happy when his girls were born. I can only imagine how excited he was to be a grandpa. My heart goes out to his family I know he will be missed. I will pray for all of you as you go through this difficult time. Sincerely, Annette Johnson (Residori)

“ Terry was a Wonderful, caring, funny and loving person. If u could have seen him when he would go for his bike ride, music blasting, no shirt had his Cigs with him and bare footed, he put these foam pads on the pedals, as his delicate feet would hurt. Haha. We spent the last months here in Florida with him and Paul Rury, he loved Florida. We loved him and he loved us. My heart is heavy, but with that smile of his, let's celebrate his life, I know I am, thoughts and prayers to all of his family
