“ I met Veronica when I was 16, and quickly figured out why everyone called her Grandma at the grocery store. There's so many memories that come to mind and I'm so thankful to have met her and some of her family. I'll miss you and your laughter Grandma. Prayers to your family and friends.

My sincerest condolences to the family. I have known Roni for many years from shopping at IGA then Berkots. The last several years I've known her more personally. I've shared wonderful times, great conversation and many cups of coffee with her and my other friends from Essex.

She was so very kind and I am blessed to have known her as my friend. She will certainly be missed be so many.
