

Walter Lee Webster

March 29, 1931 - November 15, 2010

Age 79, of Braidwood, IL, passed away Monday, November 15, 2010 in Wilmington, IL. Born March 29, 1931 in Stafford, KS to the late Martin and Goldie (nee Sawyer) Webster. Walter retired from BASF Chemical Company in Channahon, IL. Veteran of the United States Army, serving during the Korean Conflict. He was an avid Chicago White Sox fan. Surviving were three daughters, Linda (Rocky) Flynn of Minooka, IL, Lavoy (Jim) Bauer of Shorewood, IL, and Charlene (Bert) Niehls of Wilmington, IL; eight grandchildren, Jennie Clennon, Jason Zolper, Ray (Tabytha) Flynn, Rachel Flynn, Regina Flynn, Danielle Niehls, Jonathan Niehls, and Lindsay Bauer; and great-grandchildren, Lucas Clennon, Emily Sutherland, Martin Stokes, and Kylee Hickey. Preceding him in death was his wife, Velma Lee (nee Trent) Webster on April 2, 2006. Funeral services were at the R.W. Patterson Funeral Homes, Ltd., Braidwood Chapel, Friday, November 19, 2010 at 1:00 p.m. with visitation two hours preceding services. Rev. Jan Chandler officiated. Interment with military honors was in Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery in Elwood, IL. The pallbearers were Jim Bauer, Bert Niehls, Jon Niehls, Rocky Flynn, Ray Flynn, and Jason Zolper.

Cemetery Details

Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery

20953 W. Hoff Rd.
Elwood, IL 60421